VOICE

The lifeguard-who-isn't (we have no lifeguard, and we say so): high energy, short sentences, price and hours up front. Rules are stated plainly and end with 'have fun'.

Do

- Lead with price and hours — they're the whole decision.
- Use punchy fragments in headlines: 'Sand. Shade. Seven bucks.'
- Keep rules friendly and ALL-CAPS-free on the web (the sign at the gate can shout).
- Push 'buy your pass before you leave the house'.

Don't

- Resort language — it's a park.
- Imply there's a lifeguard or a supervised swim area.
- Bury the no-glass rule.

Words we use: beach day, sand, day pass, shelter, 9 to sunset, kids 7 & under free, buy ahead, paddle

Words we avoid: resort, exclusive, accommodations, lifeguard on duty

TYPOGRAPHY

Display	Lilita One (rounded display)
Body	Nunito (600–800)
Accent	—

The logo is a playful hand-lettered 'Island View' with sun, palm and wave. Lilita One carries that bounce; Nunito keeps it legible.

LOGO USAGE

- Lockup: 'Island View' lettering + sun/palm + wave + 'DAY USE · PICNIC AREA · BEACH ACCESS'. Drop the descriptor line below 160 px.
- Bright colors are the brand; only use the one-color black version on print forms.
- Never place on orange or yellow backgrounds — white or sky blue only.

PHOTOGRAPHY

- Sand, splashing kids, umbrellas, kayaks pulled up on the beach, shelters with a grill going. Midday bright and saturated.
- Show the crowd on holiday weekends — popularity is the pitch.
- Winter: eagles and empty sand for the 'year-round' story.

KEY MESSAGES

- $7 day pass · kids 7 & under free · TAP members free.
- 9am to sunset, every day, year-round.
- Shelters $40/day, reservation only.
- Kayaks and SUPs right off the beach.
