

Paradise on Lake Texoma

Brand style guide & voice · Glamping · Cabins · RV · Primitive camping · paradisetexoma.com · Texoma Destinations family · v1.0 · September 2026

POSITIONING

Two hundred gated acres on the quiet western shore where you actually unplug: waterfront glamping Kabanas, Kasitas and Kimas, a 1920s train-car cabin, shaded RV loops that love vintage campers, primitive shoreline tents, a hammock garden and a community bar.

Audience. Couples and young families seeking a slower weekend; glamping-curious first-timers; RV and vintage-camper owners; small reunions.

VOICE

A friend who already has the fire going. Lowercase energy, sensory detail, gentle humor. Talks about marshmallows and sunsets before hookups and check-in.

Do

- Write in lowercase-feeling sentences even when capitalized — short, soft, sensory.
- Use the property's own names: Kabana, Kasita, Kima, Paradise Express, hammock garden, community bar.
- Invite, don't instruct: 'claim a hammock' not 'hammocks are available'.

PERSONALITY

Laid-back Warm Whimsical Unhurried
Neighborhood

Shared platform (2023 campaign): Fun, Friendly, Family, Exciting, Enjoyable, Personable, Accommodating, Experienced, Safe.

USP: The Best Lake Experience Close to Home. Tagline: this is Paradise

Don't

- Hype or urgency — Paradise never shouts.
- Corporate campground language ('full-service RV resort').
- Over-promise privacy in the RV loops; be honest that glamping shares a bathhouse.

- Keep 'this is Paradise' as the signature line; the lowercase 'this is' is deliberate.

Words we use: kick your feet up, unplug, hammock, sunset, roast, gated, shade, vintage camper, this is Paradise

Words we avoid: luxury, resort, amenities, hurry, limited time

Caveat (script) for 'this is'-style asides

The wordmark stacks a script 'this is' over condensed caps PARADISE with a wave — recreate that rhythm: script kicker, condensed headline, rounded sans body.

LOGO USAGE

- Full lockup 'this is PARADISE on Lake Texoma' is the primary mark. Never set 'This Is' in caps.
- Colors are muted by design — do not saturate. One-color white for dark photos.
- Minimum width 140 px. Clear space = height of 'is'.
- Google lists the property as 'Paradise Cove Resort & Camp' — brand copy always says 'Paradise on Lake Texoma'.

PHOTOGRAPHY

- Hammocks, string lights, campfires, the train car, vintage campers, kids with sticks and marshmallows.
- Soft golden light, film-like grain, muted greens and blues. Wide, quiet compositions.
- Replace stock imagery (AdobeStock heroes on the old site) with real property photos.

KEY MESSAGES

- Glamping three ways: Kabanass, Kasitas, Kimas.
- Sleep in a real 1920s train car.
- Vintage campers especially welcome.
- Hammock garden, community bar, one big fire.

Kick your feet up. this is Paradise.

Two hundred gated acres of oaks, hammocks and water views — and nothing on the schedule but the marshmallows.

Social: sunday–thursday nights are always discounted. the hammocks don't know what day it is either.
