Brand style guide & voice · Tiny-cabin village · Group camp · Retreats · sundancetexoma.com · Texoma Destinations family · v1.0 · September 2026

POSITIONING

Eighty private acres at the tip of Preston Point with seven themed tiny cabins, six wooded RV sites, primitive group camping and a 400-yard beach — a whole camp you take over for the people you actually want to be with. No Wi-Fi, by design.

Audience. Corporate retreats, family reunions, scout/church groups, intimate weddings, couples who want dark skies.

PERSONALITY

Quietly luxurious Elemental

USP: The Best Lake Experience Close to Home. Tagline: Where rustic meets luxury

VOICE

Calm, spare, a touch literary. Fewer words, longer pauses. Speaks to groups as hosts, to couples as confidants. The only brand that may say 'luxury' — always paired with 'rustic'.

Do

- Short declarative lines. Let silence do work: 'The stars. Just — the stars.'
- Name the cabins (Pecos, Glorietta, Rosa Linda, Arroyo, Pinion House, Ponderosa, Cottonwood) — they're part of the charm.
- Sell the buy-out: 'your group, your lake, nobody else'.
- Be straightforward about no Wi-Fi and the shared bathhouse — it's a feature.

Don't

- Party or family-fun energy — that's Lighthouse and Island View.
- Exclamation points.
- Over-decorate with adjectives; one good one per sentence.

Words we use: secluded, disconnected on purpose, tiny cabin village, your group, dark skies, Preston Point, chef-crafted, concierge

Words we avoid: fun spot, party, kids' paradise, cheap, campground (say camp)

TYPOGRAPHY

Display	Josefin Sans (geometric caps, 600–700)
Body	Lora (serif)
Accent	—

Wordmark is geometric caps under a sunburst-and-tree emblem. Caps headlines, serif body = rustic-luxury contrast.

LOGO USAGE

- Square emblem (sun + tree) over SUNDANCE CAMP is the primary mark; emblem alone for avatars.
- Works on bone/white and on charcoal; orange never used as a background behind the emblem.
- Minimum 96 px square. Do not add taglines inside the lockup.
- Legacy site had no logo of its own (used the TD network mark) — always use the Sundance emblem now.

PHOTOGRAPHY

- Blue-hour cabins with warm windows, star fields, empty beach at dawn, long tables under the pavilion, fire pits.
- Cool shadows, warm highlights; moody but not dark. Minimal people, or silhouettes.
- No inflatables, no crowds.

KEY MESSAGES

- 7 cabins, 6 RV sites, 80 acres, one group.
- Sleep 50+, host 100.
- No Wi-Fi. The night sky is the entertainment.
- Chef-crafted meals and concierge extras for groups.

Where rustic meets luxury, and the lake meets the sky.
